Name: _____ Form: _____

IV. Writing

Part 1 – A short article: School lunch

Your English exchange partner is doing a project about school dinners and has sent you this photo. She / he has asked you to write something about lunch at your school or German schools in general. Write about 50 words. Count your words.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Number of words:	/ 5 P.

Part 2 – An E-Mail: Lost Suitcase

When you arrived at Frankfurt Airport after an exchange year in Toronto, Canada, your suitcase was not there. So you complained to the airline and left your name and address there. The next day, you got your luggage back. Now you want to tell your host family about this incident.

Write them an e-mail and tell them …

- what happened to you at Frankfurt Airport
- how you felt
- how the situation was solved.

Write about 50 words. Count them at the end.

TO: millerfamilytoronto@gmail.ca

FROM:

SUBJECT:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Number of words:	/ 5 P.

Part 3 – An Article: Online 24/7?

Your school is e-twinning with a school in Cardiff, Wales. Both schools are doing a project on new technologies. In your lessons you talked about the following topic:

Online 24/7 – a blessing or a curse?

It is your task to write an article on the topic that will be published in your partners' school magazine. In your text you should talk about

- the importance of WhatsApp, Instagram, Facebook etc. for you
- how much time you spend online
- some pros and cons of being online 24/7.

Write about 120 words. Count your words.

Number of words: _____

content:	/ 7.5	language:	/ 7.5	total:	/ 15 P.